

GOVERNMENT DOCUMENT BLOGS PRESENTED AT THE 2007 ALA DURING THE BLOGGING CONFERENCE: BLOGS DEVOTED TO DISCOVERING LATEST GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS, DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL CONCERNS.

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO GOV BLOG:

<http://cubgovpubs.blogspot.com/>

FREE GOVERNMENT INFORMATION (with explanations):

<http://freegovinfo.info/>

LATEST COURSE WIKIS AND BLOGS : <http://biro.bemidjistate.edu/>
(great for RELOs)

EMBRACING EMERGING TECHNOLOGIES: explanations of social networking, blogs, wikis at a conference held last year at U of GEORGIA, ATHENS.)

<http://emergingtechgold.pbwiki.com/>

GOV BLOG FROM UNIV OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY (extensively covers International Issues, has RSS feeds and covers hot button topics, such as emerging legislation, Immigration, etc.) : <http://sunsite3.berkeley.edu/govblog/>
Really an excellent source of Information

BUSINESS WIKI FROM UNIVERSITY OF OHIO (lots of International Business Information here as well)

http://www.library.ohiou.edu/subjects/bizwiki/index.php/Main_Page

RED TAPE FROM THE GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS LIBRARIANS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN: ITEMS OF INTEREST TO GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS LIBRARIANS: <http://blog.lib.msu.edu/redtape/>
Extensive subject links on right of page.

SWEM GOVERNMENT INFORMATION (emphasis on recent court cases and legislation of interest to GOV DOCS Librarians):

<http://swem.wm.edu/blogs/government-information/index.cfm>

And a bonus: STEPHEN's LIGHTHOUSE: latest news on VENDORS, EMERGING TECHNOLOGY, etc: fascinating glimpse into our future:

<http://stephenslighthouse.sirsidynix.com/>

Another BONUS: for those fans of Peter Norville's AMBIENT FINDABILITY, a link to his fascinating POWERPOINT presentation yesterday may be found at:

<http://semanticstudios.com/alcts.pdf>

Another Link: 10 cool technologies that can impact your Libraries' Public Relations Plan:

<http://www.ala.org/ala/pio/prforum/prforum.htm>